

Defence Secretary keynote speech at the Air and Space Power Conference 2020

The Defence Secretary Presented a keynote speech at the Air and Space Power Conference 2020 where he announced the £65 million contract for the Protector aircraft.

Defence Secretary Ben Wallace gives a speech at the Air and Space Power Conference

Defence Secretary Ben Wallace outlines the air and space power in an age of constant competition.

MOD signs £65 million contract for Protector aircraft

A £65 million contract to build the UK's first three Protector aircraft, the first UK operated system capable of strike missions anywhere in the world, has been signed.

Defence Minister and Head of the US Army sign Modernisation Agreement

Minister of the Armed Forces James Heappey and US Secretary of the Army Ryan McCarthy have signed a Memorandum of Agreement on joint modernisation of both the British and US Army.

New anti-bullying helpline to clamp down on poor behaviour in the military

A new helpline providing support for service personnel experiencing or witnessing bullying, harassment or discrimination has been set up by the Ministry of Defence to clamp down on instances of unacceptable behaviour in the ...