

DIO completes essential improvements at RNAS Yeovilton

The Defence Infrastructure Organisation (DIO) has completed and handed over to the Royal Navy a project at Royal Naval Air Station (RNAS) Yeovilton.

Ministry of Defence seeks to maximise Reserves contribution through new review

The specialist contribution military reservists have made across society during Britain's battle against coronavirus will help inform a review examining how defence can maximise the skills of its Reserve Forces.

New £300-million contract paves the way for Veterans UK digital transformation

The way many of Veterans UK services are delivered is to be digitised as part of a new contract worth £300-million that successfully commenced on 1 June 2020.

Third Future Accommodation Model (FAM) pilot takes off in RAF Wittering

The FAM pilot is now live across all three services after the third FAM pilot site launched at RAF Wittering.

Construction begins on DIO's new Whittington headquarters

The Defence Infrastructure Organisation (DIO) and Kier have marked the start of construction work to create a new headquarters at the Defence Medical Services (DMS) Whittington site with a turf-cutting ceremony.