

Attack on Camp Taji in Iraq: Foreign Secretary's statement

The Foreign Secretary has issued a statement following the attack on Coalition forces at Camp Taji in Iraq last night.

DIO announces Nuclear Technical Support Provider framework suppliers

The Defence Infrastructure Organisation (DIO) has announced the 3 suppliers selected to join the new Nuclear Technical Support Provider (NTSP) framework.

The Ministry of Defence Commercial Delivery Partner

The MOD Commercial Delivery Partner (CommDP) programme is a strategic initiative that will support transformation and innovation.

Lt Gen Richard Nugee to lead MOD's climate change policy

A new review has been launched to spearhead initiatives within the Ministry of Defence when it comes to tackling the challenges of climate change.

Gaming technology trialled in training UK Armed Forces

Trials are set to begin for a new virtual reality training platform for the UK Armed Forces, built on the same gaming engine as Fortnite.