

Visions for Strategic Command outlined during inaugural RUSI Conference

Defence leaders have laid out their vision for the UK's new Strategic Command, putting cyber security and new technologies at the heart of the military.

Inaugural Strategic Command RUSI Conference

Exploring the vision, ambitions and challenges for Strategic Command (UKStratCom).

Military deploys to provide flood relief during Storm Dennis

British Army personnel have deployed to assist civil authorities with the provision of flood relief to local communities in West Yorkshire

UK further commits to NATO and European Security through JEF Readiness Declaration and deployment of Typhoons to Lithuania

Defence Secretary Ben Wallace underlined the UK's leading role in the NATO Alliance as he met fellow defence ministers in Brussels.

United Kingdom Security Vetting (UKSV): our latest updates

Over recent months we have been working to review and update our guidance and information in relation to National Security Vetting.