

New Office for Veterans' Affairs will ensure the UK leads the world in care for Armed Forces Veterans

The new office sits within the Cabinet Office and will pull together all functions of government, and better co-ordinate charity sector provision.

New solar panels generate savings at Worthy Down

Solar panels are helping the environment and saving money at the Defence College of Logistics, Policing and Administration (DCLPA) at Worthy Down.

Defence Secretary Ben Wallace addresses the NATO Parliamentary Assembly 2019

Defence Secretary Ben Wallace addressed parliamentarians from across the NATO Alliance at the NATO Parliamentary Assembly on Monday 14 October 2019.

First UK fighter jets land onboard HMS Queen Elizabeth

Pictures released by the MOD show UK F-35 Lightning jets landing, taking off and hovering onboard Britain's next generation aircraft carrier, HMS Queen Elizabeth for the first time.

Cayman Islands to establish a new reserve unit with support of the UK military

Defence Minister Mark Lancaster travelled to the Cayman Islands and met with the Governor, and the Premier to agree the first steps in establishing the new unit