

Royal Navy deploys medics to support humanitarian efforts following Bahamas hurricane

The Royal Navy has deployed extra medics to join Royal Fleet Auxiliary ship Mounts Bay in delivering humanitarian assistance to the Bahamas following Hurricane Dorian.

UK and US reaffirm defence ties ahead of NATO's 70th Anniversary

US Secretary of Defense Dr.

New guide for parents of LGBT+ children

The Ministry of Defence's (MOD) LGBT network, along with other LGBT allies from across defence, have launched a new guide for military and civilian parents of LGBT+ children.

RFA Mounts Bay conducts successful casualty evacuation and search and rescue mission

The Royal Navy Wildcat deployed with RFA Mounts Bay in the Caribbean has rescued a British citizen who had been trapped beneath rubble for several days on Great Abaco Island.

British Army launches Industrial Engagement Framework

The British Army has launched the Army Industrial Engagement Framework (AIEF).