

News story: NCGI success at the GSE Geography in Government Awards 2019

At the GSE Geography in Government Awards, 6 nominations from the National Centre for Geospatial Intelligence, part of Defence Intelligence, were shortlisted.

News story: Graves of Two Kent Soldiers Identified a Century After Their Deaths in the Great War

The resting places of Captain (Capt) Cecil Thomas Tuff, The Queen's Own (Royal West Kent Regiment) and Captain Eric Wilson Edwards, The Queen's (Royal West Surrey Regiment), have been identified more than a hundred years after they lost their lives during World War I.

News story: UK and US pilots to prepare for frontline on state-of-the-art simulators

Defence Minister Stuart Andrew has announced that British pilots will be able to undertake simultaneous, virtual exercises with US counterparts based across the Atlantic using new cutting-edge simulation technology.

News story: RAF Typhoons scramble twice in two days to intercept Russian

aircraft

Royal Air Force Typhoons deployed in Estonia scramble for the first time since taking over the NATO Baltic Air Policing mission in the country.

Speech: RUSI Sea Power Conference 15 May 2019

Admiral Sir Philip Jones KCB ADC DL keynote speech at the start of the First Sea Lord's Sea Power Conference at RUSI, London.