

Five teenagers recognised by Her Majesty's Lord-Lieutenant of Clwyd

Five teenage cadets from across Clwyd have been recognised by the Queen's representative for the county.

Five teenagers recognised by Her Majesty's Lord-Lieutenant of Clwyd

Five teenage cadets from across Clwyd have been recognised by the Queen's representative for the county.

First £22 million MINERVA satellite supports 100 UK jobs

The first in a network of new satellites will be designed and built in a new three-year, £22 million contract with Surrey Satellite Technology Ltd (SSTL).

UK Space Command marks one-year anniversary

UK Space Command is today marking its first anniversary following formation in April 2021.

New housing services for thousands of UK military families come into force

New contracts have gone live on 1 April 2022 that will provide crucial accommodation services to 39,000 Armed Forces families across the UK.