

UK cutting-edge space defence backed by £1.4 billion

The UK will invest £1.4 billion to bolster our national interests in space, as part of the first Defence Space Strategy published today.

Lord-Lieutenant of West Glamorgan pays tribute to reserves and cadets in the county

The Queen's representative for West Glamorgan has praised the dedication and commitment of reservists, volunteers, and cadets for the service they give to the country and our communities.

Dstl careers: Phillippa, senior principal statistician

Phillippa Spencer talks about her work at Dstl and what it's been like to be a female mathematician in a male-dominated profession.

Thousands of military personnel supporting Covid-19 response

Defence medics supporting all four nations of the United Kingdom as part of Operation Rescript

Defence Secretary visits Netherlands, Germany and NATO Headquarters

The Defence Secretary this week held meetings in The Hague, Brussels and Berlin, continuing a period of diplomacy over the situation in Ukraine.