

English National Opera says thank you to our staff with virtual Christmas carols

The English National Opera (ENO) has given our staff a special boost this Christmas with the singing of carols to help spread some festive cheer.

AI-supported test predicts eye disease three years before symptoms

A pioneering new eye test may predict Wet age-related macular degeneration (AMD), a leading cause of severe sight loss, three years before symptoms develop.□

Imperial College Healthcare appoints Jazz Thind as chief financial officer

The Trust has appointed Jazz Thind as its permanent chief financial officer following an 11-month period as interim.

NHS Covid-19 vaccination programme

The national Covid-19 vaccination programme got underway on 8 December. Our Trust expects to receive an initial supply of the vaccine for our staff and we are awaiting a delivery date.

St Mary's and Charing Cross A&Es will join NHS 111 First service from 27 November

St Mary's and Charing Cross A&Es will join NHS 111 First service from Thursday 27 November – providing booked appointments for patients with urgent but not life-threatening medical needs.