

Urgent response needed to tackle Covid-19 health disparities

An Imperial expert has called for rapid action to tackle the causes of severe Covid-19 illness and death in ethnic minority groups.

---

Major developments at Trust confirmed in Government's hospital building programme

The Prime Minister has confirmed major redevelopments for all three of our main hospital sites as part of a new announcement on the Government's health infrastructure plan.

---

RCN Rising Stars announced at the Trust

RCN London announces Black, Asian, and Minority Ethnic nursing Rising Stars of 2020 to kick off Black History Month celebrations

---

Trust welcomes new non-executive directors

Bob Alexander, Sim Scavazza and Beverley Ejimofa have been appointed into non-executive roles at the Trust.

---

Early surgical treatment of leg ulcers caused by varicose veins improves healing and reduces the risk of the condition coming back

In a clinical trial, led by researchers at Imperial College London and clinicians at the Trust, 450 patients with venous leg ulcers were treated with early surgical interventions.