

OPEN LETTER To Sir Vince Cable DEMANDING answers on Brexit policy

Dear Sir Vince,

I am writing to you regarding the second episode of the Channel 4 documentary, "Carry On Brussels" in which the Liberal Democrat MEP, Catherine Bearder is one of the featured characters.

In it, Ms Bearder is filmed actively encouraging the European Parliament's lead for the Brexit negotiations, Guy Verhofstadt MEP and his team to work as hard as possible to make negotiations as difficult as possible.

This is of course a deliberate attempt to undermine the UK's negotiating position and done knowingly in order to make life in the UK as difficult as is possible in the attempt to turn public opinion against the Referendum result.

Could you tell me if this is deliberate Liberal Democrat Policy over the Brexit negotiations, or was Ms Bearder working on her own initiative? If the former isn't this a disreputable way of going about things, working deliberately against the interest of the Government with a foreign politician?

If the latter, what are you going to do about this freelance behaviour?

Yours sincerely,

Gerard Batten MEP,

UKIP Leader

Jim Carver MEP RESIGNS from UKIP

UKIP Leader Gerard Batten said: "I have just heard that Jim Carver MEP has resigned from UKIP. I immediately spoke to Jim on the telephone. He was unable or unwilling to give me a coherent reason for his resignation. I spoke to him earlier this week and he gave me no indication of his intentions.

“I asked him to do the decent and honourable thing and resign his MEP seat and make way for the next UKIP person on the Party List. He refused.

“I am sorry to say Jim has joined the ranks of those without honour who continue to take the salary, expenses and pension which they would never have had without the sacrifice of ordinary UKIP members.

“UKIP will continue its fight for a complete exit from the European Union.”

UKIP Leader Gerard Batten Calls For A Terrorism Memorial Day

UKIP Leader Gerard Batten said this today:

“On the anniversary of the Manchester Arena attack and the murder of Lee Rigby, I would like to add my voice, on behalf of UKIP, to those calling for a Terrorism Memorial Day.

“Over many years we have experienced a growing toll of victims of senseless acts of terrorism from different perpetrators. It would be fitting to remember all the victims on the same day.

“However, the day should not be used to express passive sentimentality towards these outrages but to focus our minds on the practical measures that need to be taken to combat terrorism and the ideologies that promote it.

“Sadly, the roll call of the innocent victims of terrorism is likely to be added to, however much we hope not, and remembering these people is of no use unless there is a resolve to tackle the causes of terrorism.

“Meanwhile we pay our respects and offer our sympathies to the victims and families of people such as the Manchester bombing and Lee Rigby”.

UKIP Leader Gerard Batten Responds to BBC Teach Video

“This is pure pro-immigration propaganda. It begins by laughably citing the Roman, Saxon, Viking and Norman invasions as ‘immigration’.

“This is simplistic propaganda but what it makes it all the more sinister is that it is being paid for by the state-funded propaganda channel, the BBC – paid for by reluctant license holders.

“This polemic is call ‘Teach’ but it would be more accurate to call it ‘Indoctrinate’.

“This is simplistic, deliberate misinformation, and simple brain-washing techniques that the BBC has the bare faced effrontery to produced at tax-payers expense.

“I was long ago convinced that the BBC should lose is Charter and this only reinforces that for me.”
