

Gender pay gap decreases in rural areas

The gender pay gap in rural, island and remote areas has decreased over the last decade.

Top of the CLAAS

The Barony campus has been marking the tenth anniversary of a highly successful training partnership with one of the world's leading farm machinery manufacturers.

Chance not to waste

A comprehensive new assurance scheme aims to reduce the pollution caused by spreading organic materials on UK farms.

Interactive demo on beef value

Oatridge students will help SAC Consulting's Senior Beef Specialist to deliver an interactive demonstration at AgriScot.

Researchers return to Guinea-Bissau

Researchers from SRUC recently visited Guinea-Bissau as part of their Academy of Medical Sciences/Global Challenges Research Fund project on diversification within cashew production.