

SRUC awarded the European Foundation for Quality Management

SRUC has been awarded the European Foundation for Quality Management (EFQM) 'Committed to Excellence' award by Quality Scotland, following a rigorous validation day on 31 May.

CARNEVALE' shows animals' responses to unique objects

Pig KerPlunk and a popcorn-dispensing piñata are among a collection of unique objects created for an event at the pig research unit in Easter Howgate which explored how pigs like to play.

SRUC and Moredun partnership develops

The new strategic partnership with the Moredun Research Institute has taken a significant step forward as work starts on the joint laboratories at the Pentland Science Park, Midlothian.

Researchers helping African farmers diversify

Researchers from Scotland's Rural College have recently returned from Guinea-Bissau in Western Africa to assist in building networking and knowledge transfer centres between international researchers.

Marketing team pulls off double HEIST nomination

SRUC has been shortlisted for two prestigious national higher education marketing awards.