

SRUC awarded the European Foundation for Quality Management

SRUC has been awarded the European Foundation for Quality Management (EFQM) 'Committed to Excellence' award by Quality Scotland, following a rigorous validation day on 31 May.

---

CARNEVALE' shows animals' responses to unique objects

Pig KerPlunk and a popcorn-dispensing piñata are among a collection of unique objects created for an event at the pig research unit in Easter Howgate which explored how pigs like to play.

---

SRUC and Moredun partnership develops

The new strategic partnership with the Moredun Research Institute has taken a significant step forward as work starts on the joint laboratories at the Pentland Science Park, Midlothian.

---

Researchers helping African farmers diversify

Researchers from Scotland's Rural College have recently returned from Guinea-Bissau in Western Africa to assist in building networking and knowledge transfer centres between international researchers.

---

Marketing team pulls off double HEIST nomination

SRUC has been shortlisted for two prestigious national higher education marketing awards.