

Keep on tracking

A consultant at Scotland's Rural College (SRUC) has switched track from agricultural drainage to restoring a steam railway in Aberdeenshire.

Moving to the beet

A New Zealand-based expert will take part in a series of webinars – aimed specifically at sheep, beef and dairy – on the use of fodder beet as a crop to feed livestock over the winter.

Bouncing forward from a crisis

A New Zealand farmer who has overcome everything from earthquakes to drought will offer advice to his Scottish counterparts on how to 'bounce forward' from a crisis.

Skye corncrake partnership celebrates 10 years

A collaborative partnership to help secure a future for Skye's corncrake population is celebrating its tenth anniversary.

Growing an organic partnership

A unique postgraduate course in Organic Farming is celebrating its 20th year at Scotland's Rural College (SRUC).