

Professorship for Animal Welfare Expert who Begins by Asking Them the Questions

Marie Haskell, a respected animal welfare expert who focuses on what animals tell her about what suits them, has been awarded a Professorship.

New research validates traditional healers' claims over parasite infections in Ethiopia

New research from SRUC has validated claims of traditional healers in Ethiopia that indigenous plants have strong anti-parasitic properties.

Rural Policy Centre launches survey into migrant labour in Scottish agriculture

Researchers at SRUC are seeking help from farmers and rural businesses using seasonal migrant labour in Scottish agriculture.

Researchers receive award from Humane Slaughter Association

Staff at the Edinburgh Campus of SRUC have been announced as joint winners of the Humane Slaughter Award by The Humane Slaughter Association (HSA).

Mizeck Chagunda leads advisory panel board for Supporting Evidence Based Interventions

Mizeck Chagunda, Reader for Future Farming Systems at SRUC, has taken on a new responsibility in his commitment to supporting livestock health and production in sub Saharan Africa.