

SRUC Principal to sit on new Women in Agriculture taskforce

The Principal & Chief Executive of SRUC, Professor Wayne Powell, will sit on the new Women in Agriculture taskforce announced at the Royal Highland Show by the First Minister.

Success celebration at SRUC Oatridge

Students from the Oatridge Campus of Scotland's Rural College gathered to collect their awards at the annual prize giving.

New SRUC research validates traditional healers' claims over parasite infections in Ethiopia

New research from SRUC has validated claims of traditional healers in Ethiopia that indigenous plants have strong anti-parasitic properties.

Presentation of Certificates and Awards at Barony Campus

Students gathered for the annual awards ceremony at the Barony Campus of SRUC were told to "hold on to their dreams" in their chosen career paths.

SRUC's Mizeck Chagunda leads advisory panel board for SEBI – Supporting Evidence Based Interventions

Mizeck Chagunda, Reader for Future Farming Systems at SRUC, has taken on a new responsibility in his commitment to supporting livestock health and production in sub Saharan Africa.