

Planting seeds for the future

Four former students from Scotland's Rural College joined other experts at a Grow Careers event showcasing opportunities in the field of horticulture.

African Turf Academy celebrates its Fife roots

The African Turf Academy, which was developed in partnership with Scotland's Rural College, has been celebrating its ten-fold growth at an international conference.

Winter Wheat winners

One of the UK's top arable farmers has praised the winners of this year's Winter Wheat Challenge.

Jack shows his skills

An SRUC student has picked up a £1000 prize as the winner of this year's AgriScot Business Skills competition.

Jumping headlong into life after cancer

An Animal Care student is living life to the full after finishing treatment for blood cancer.