

Researchers on emission to review nitrogen use

Climate change researchers are exploring ways that farmers could reduce emissions from nitrogen fertiliser use.

Animal appetites on the bill at BSAS 2019

Scientists from around the world are gathering in Scotland's capital from 9-11 April for the British Society of Animal Science (BSAS) 75th anniversary conference.

Walk on the wild side

Students are set to take a walk on the wild side following a collaboration between Scotland's Rural College and the Royal Zoological Society of Scotland (RZSS).

Research with impact

Nearly 50 postgraduate students presented their work at a two-day conference showcasing research at Scotland's Rural College.

Golfer par excellence

Golf student Lorna McClymont is celebrating after the biggest win of her career at the R&A Foundation Scholars Tournament in St Andrews.