

Aviation Council makes progress on futureproofing aviation sector

Vital reforms considered by the Aviation Council to achieve an innovative and efficient sector that provides more choice and better value for passengers.