

Barking Riverside secures government backing for more homes

Homes England approves £124 million funding package for vital infrastructure to support 20,000 home development in east London.