

Beware summer mastitis

A beef expert at Scotland's Rural College has highlighted the importance of checking cattle following reports of large numbers of summer mastitis cases.