

BHC Kampala recognises youth working in the disability space

Young people were nominated through organisations working on disability inclusion.