

Biggest investment into hospices in a generation

£100 million boost for adult and children's hospices and £26 million to support children and young people's hospices.