

Biggest upgrade to UK farming schemes introduced by the Government since leaving the EU

Environment Secretary announces major updates for farmers, with an increase in funding and reduction in red tape this summer.