

Board member reappointed to the Charity Commission for England and Wales

The Secretary of State has reappointed Will Lifford as a Board Member of The Charity Commission for a second term of three years.