

Book now for our Forward Thinking conference

News story

Insolvency strategies for a post-pandemic economy

The Insolvency Service would like to invite you to attend our Research and Technical Conference to be held online on 19 November 2021 'Forward Thinking: insolvency strategies for a post pandemic economy'.

Forward Thinking will facilitate a link between academia, the insolvency sector and policymakers, by providing a platform for current insolvency research and a forum for technical discussion.

Papers will be presented by key figures from academia and industry including:

- Dr Kayode Akintola, Professor David Milman & Sofia Ellina, Lancaster University
- Professor Peter Walton, University of Wolverhampton
- Dr Bolanle Adebola, University of Reading
- Professor Rebecca Parry, Nottingham Trent University
- Sue Morgan, University of Nottingham
- Inga West, Counsel, Ashurst LLP
- Alfonso Nocilla, Assistant Professor, University of Western Ontario
- Dr Stephen Baister, Deputy Insolvency & Companies Court Judge of the High Court

We will be encouraging comment and questions from online attendees so come along and get involved!

Book your online tickets here: Forward Thinking: Insolvency strategies for a post-pandemic economy Tickets, Fri 19 Nov 2021 at 10:00 | Eventbrite

There are a limited number of in-person tickets available for the event, which will be held at Conference Aston, Aston University, Birmingham. If you would like to attend in person, please email conference@insolvency.gov.uk to register your interest.

A Research and Technical Conference presented by The Insolvency Service and Aston University.

Published 7 October 2021