

Boost for swifter justice as legal aid consultation launches

Vulnerable people at risk of unfair eviction or homelessness could benefit from a £20 million a year boost in legal aid as a consultation is launched today.