

Boost in activities and food pledged to support children

New funding announced for infant school meals, as supermarkets and sport organisations pledge to support children through Holiday Activities and Food programme