

Breadth of UK food, drink and innovation set to shine at the 2020 China International Import Expo

The UK will showcase the best of British at the third China International Import Expo (CIIE), following a record-breaking year of £100 billion in trade between the two nations.