

Brexit announcement: Greens give voters chance to stay in EU

2 May 2017

 Greens reveal new pledge giving voters ratification referendum with option to keep EU membership

 Caroline Lucas: "A democracy worthy of the name must mean people having a real say"

Caroline Lucas today offered voters the chance to remain in the EU as she announces the Green Party's new Brexit pledge.

Lucas, Green Party co-leader, will pledge to give voters a final say on any Brexit deal – with the chance to stay in the EU if they don't like the deal the Government negotiates.

Lucas is expected to say:

"A democracy worthy of the name must mean people having a real say over the major decisions that affect their lives. That's why the Green Party has consistently said that the referendum should be the start, not the end, of the democratic process. And it's why today we are announcing our intention to push for remaining in the EU to be an option in a ratification referendum."

The Greens are the only party to have made an official and unambiguous pledge to include the option of remaining in the EU on the ballot paper of a ratification referendum.

Lucas is expected to say:

"Whoever wins this election has a mandate to negotiate on behalf of the British people – but that does not mean that they have a right to impose a final deal. Instead we demand a ratification referendum which gives people the option to remain in the EU if they wish, or vote to back the Government's deal.

"There are some who say that this is a re-run of the referendum, but that simply isn't the case. Instead this is giving people an informed say over our shared future. If the Government is so convinced that they'll get a decent deal then there's no reason that they wouldn't trust people to have a final say.

"Our message is simple. For a final say, and for a chance to vote to stay in the EU, vote Green."

Lucas will be joined by Molly Scott Cato, the Green Party's EU spokesperson who is gearing up to take the Bristol West seat from Labour and join Lucas in Parliament.

Scott Cato, Green Party EU spokesperson and Bristol West candidate, is expected to say:

“Take back control was the strap line which persuaded many to vote Leave in the referendum last year. It’s now clear what that meant. A power grab by the Tory right so they can make a bonfire of regulations which protect our rights and environment. A ratification referendum must give back control. People must be given an opportunity to vote for the future on offer at the end of the article 50 process, or decide whether actually we are better off remaining a full member of the EU.”

Tweet

Back to main news page

Let's block ads! \(Why?\)