

British Ambassador congratulates new President of Guatemala

Commenting on the recent Presidential and Legislative inaugurations, Ambassador Whittingham said:

I welcome the inauguration of President Alejandro Giammattei, following successful elections in 2019. I am pleased that the President has placed an emphasis on prosperity, social development and the need to promote reconciliation, good governance and the rule of law during his term in office.

Published 16 January 2020