

British Embassy collaborates with campaign for free journalism in Guatemala

Campaign denounces the criminalization of journalists that has intensified since last year and has seen several of them persecuted, exiled or detained.