

British Embassy Costa Rica provides training for customs officials on UK-Central America Association Agreement

The British Embassy and the Department for International Trade in Costa Rica organised a workshop for customs officials on the key components of the UK-Central America Association Agreement.