

British Minister for the Caribbean underlines UK support for violence prevention and climate resilience on first visit to Jamaica

Minister set to formally launch a joint programme for violence prevention, and visit UK-supported health centre that withstood Hurricane Beryl