

British Office Taipei released the latest annual British business survey results

British Office Taipei released the latest annual British business survey results with Positive outlook on the Taiwanese economy and high expectation for energy and net zero growth