

British pork producers to bring home the bacon

Major UK pork producers can resume exports to China as the government secures the end Covid-era restrictions on UK unprocessed pork exports