

Building peace and saving lives through government fund

The cross-government Conflict, Stability and Security Fund is delivering programmes in conflict areas to improve UK security.