

Building remediation: letter from Deputy Prime Minister

The Deputy Prime Minister has written to organisations responsible for remediation with high rise, residential buildings with unsafe cladding, setting a clear expectation for work to start on site.