

Burns suppers bring six-fold increase in haggis sales

The Scottish tradition of celebrating Robert Burns's birthday on 25 January leads to a six-fold increase in the demand for haggis, new research has found.