

Burton flood defence project on target

Work has started at Blackpool Street and at Paget High School, with work due to start at the library and leisure centre in coming weeks