

Bus Station's outstanding impact recognised in national awards

The transformation of Whitehaven's former Bus Station into a thriving business hub has been celebrated this week after receiving a national award for its impact