

Business and Trade Secretary gives lift-off to over £100 million for greener air travel

Business and Trade Secretary Jonathan Reynolds has announced over £100 million of funding for cutting-edge aerospace research and development projects.