

Businessman ordered to pay nearly £11,000 for waste offences

A Bridgwater waste business director's company took in excess waste, then failed to have it removed after being told to do so by the Environment Agency.