

Call for bids: Promoting sustainable mining in Peru

The British Embassy in Lima is seeking bids for a practical action research project that will build insights to push forward mining and human rights in Peru.