

Call for volunteers to play vital role during flooding

The Environment Agency is calling on residents in a Northumberland village to register as Flood Wardens.