

Campaign highlights the role of journalism in societies and democracy

Honduras will witness a campaign that aims to underscore the role of journalism in societies and the State's function to guarantee the full exercise of freedom of expression.