

Car retailer convicted of supplying vehicle with false trade description

A car retailer was sentenced to carry out 100 hours of community service today (July 19) at Kowloon City Magistrates' Courts for supplying a second-hand vehicle with a false trade description, in contravention of the Trade Descriptions Ordinance (TDO).

Hong Kong Customs earlier received information alleging that a second-hand car retailer had made a false claim to a consumer. After investigation, it was revealed that the retailer had supplied a second-hand vehicle bearing an odometer reading (travelling mileage) of 44,000 kilometres. Subsequently, it was confirmed that the vehicle's actual travelling mileage exceeded 130,000km.

Customs reminds traders to comply with the requirements of the TDO and consumers to procure products at reputable shops.

Under the TDO, any person who supplies goods with a false trade description in the course of trade or business, or is in possession of any goods for sale with a false trade description, commits an offence. The maximum penalty upon conviction is a fine of $500,000 and imprisonment for five years.

Members of the public may report any suspected violations of the TDO to the Customs 24-hour hotline 2545 6182 or its dedicated crime-reporting email account (crimereport@customs.gov.hk).
