

Care providers to receive fairer costs for providing care

Local authorities in England will be supported to pay a fairer rate of care to adult social care providers.